Day-6 Pipalkoti To Rishikesh

DETAILED ITINERARY

DAY 1 Rishikesh to Pipalkoti (220 km Drive)

- Your journey begins in Rishikesh, a city known for its spiritual aura and adventure activities. Trekkers will be picked up from Rishikesh. For those who wish to explore more, Rishikesh itself is a hub for cultural experiences and adrenaline-pumping water sports.
- You will also pass by the four Prayags, holy confluences of the Ganga's tributaries.
- You will arrive at Pipalkoti around 5:00 pm, where you will be welcomed with tea, followed by a trek briefing and dinner.

Meal: Dinner

Stay: Overnight stay in guesthouse.

DAY 2 Pipalkoti – Gulling Top (3 km Trek)

- After an early breakfast at Pipalkoti, the journey begins with a picturesque 2-3 hour drive to Tugasi village, situated at 2,450m.
- The initial part of the trek takes you through agricultural lands with terraced farms, a typical feature of the region.
- As you climb, look out for the Dhauli-Ganga River glistening far below and the Vishnugad-Tapovan Hydroelectric Power Station in the distance.
- The Gulling campsite shows the surrounding peaks, with Dronagiri, Hathi Parvat, and Gauri Parbat, Brahmatal Peak dominating the horizon.

Meal: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Stay: Overnight stay in Tents.

DAY 3 Gulling Top to Tali Forest Camp (5 km Trek)

- This 5-hour trek will be more relaxed compared to the previous day, providing you to enjoy the journey at a leisurely pace.
- You can take in stunning panoramic views of the mighty snow-clad peaks, including Nanda Devi, Kalanka, Chang Bang, and Hathi Parvat, Gauri Parvat.
- Arriving at Tali Forest Camp, situated in the thick of these ancient woods, you'll set up camp for the night.
- You'll fall asleep to the quiet rustle of the forest, looking forward to the even grander vistas that await the next day.

Meal: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner
Stay: Overnight stay in Tents.

DAY 4 Tali forest camp to Kuari pass and back via Khullara top (10-11 km Trek)

- This is the summit day of the Kuari Pass trek and the toughest challenge of the journey. Prepare for a long, strenuous 8-9 hour trek that will take you through some of the most breathtaking terrain and panoramic views the Garhwal region has to offer.
- As you approach the Kuari Pass, the view opens up to a panorama of majestic Himalayan peaks. A sight that will make all the effort worthwhile. The Kedarnath Peak, Chaukhamba, Neelkantha, and Nanda Devi are among the many towering summits that will surround you.

Meal: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner
Stay: Overnight stay in Tents.

DAY 5 Tali forest camp - Pipalkoti via Gurson bugyal (11150 ft) and Auli (9680 ft) (9 km Trek)

- If weather and snow conditions allow, we will return via Gorson Bugyal or Auli; otherwise, we will retrace our route through Tugasi.
- Upon reaching Auli, trekkers have the option to take a cable car ride (at their own expense) to enjoy the scenery from a bird's-eye view. The cable car ride provides panoramic vistas of the slopes, pine forests, and the distant snow-capped peaks.
- After your trek concludes in Auli, a vehicle will pick you up for a 45 km drive back to Pipalkoti. The drive will take around 1 hour and 30 minutes. At Pipalkoti, you will be greeted with evening tea, and the day will end with a debriefing session followed by dinner, and a chance to unwind and share stories of your trek before you head back.

Meal: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Stay: Overnight stay in guesthouse.

DAY 6 Pipalkoti To Rishikesh (220 km Trek)

- The last day of your Kuari Pass trek begins with an early start from Pipalkoti. After days of trekking through the Himalayan wilderness, this day will be a full return to the road, taking you back to the holy city of Rishikesh. The drive, although long and stretching about 9 hours, offers its own kind of serene beauty. You'll travel through the same beautiful landscapes that you encountered on your journey up.
- This journey back is not just a physical return but also a time to process the experiences and memories you've gathered during your trek. The Himalayas have a way of leaving an impression that stays with you long after you've returned to the everyday world.
